Even if you have toured the museum before, it is always changing with new artifacts being added. Some very interesting and beautiful artifacts have been donated to the museum this past summer and are on display now. There are always stories behind these. Make time for a visit each and every year. You will not be disappointed.

Looking for something to do in Cranberry Portage, get a small group together, call to arrange a time and we will give you a virtual tour of all the rooms in the museum on big screen TV in the "Waiting Room" No stairs to climb to second floor. or

Use the headset and handheld controls to take a 3D computer-generated simulation of a tour of the museum without leaving the comfort of a chair.
